Important - Limit of Liability

The Customer's attention is drawn to the exclusions of liability on the part of the Company and to the limits of liability and the means to increase such limits expressed in Condition 13.

Definitions

In these Conditions:

- "Transport" shall mean the conveyance of goods from the point at which the goods are accepted by and become the responsibility of or under the control of the Company to the point designated for delivery when the goods cease to be its responsibility or under its control. The operations of removal, lifting, lowering, skidding, winching, handling, loading, unloading and installation of the goods carried out in the performance of a transport contract shall be included as Transport.
- "Customer" means the person or company who contracts for the services of the Company including any other carrier who gives a consignment to the Company for carriage.
- "Goods" shall mean any article including any container, pallet or similar article for transport or packaging supplied by the Customer which is accepted by the Company for transport.
- "Dangerous Goods" means those substances and articles the carriage of which is prohibitied by the provisions of the European Agreement concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (ADR) as applied in the United Kingdom, or authorised only under the conditions prescribed in accordance therewith.
- "Abnormal Indivisible Load" shall mean a load
 - 3.5.1. which cannot without undue expense or risk of damage be divided into two or more loads for the purpose of transport, and

3.5.2. which,

- 3.5.2.1. owing to its dimensions cannot be carried by a heavy motor car or a combination of a heavy motor car and trailer complying in all respects with the requirements of the Construction and Use Regulations, or
- 3.5.2.2. owing to its weight cannot be carried by a heavy motor car or trailer or a combination of heavy motor car and trailer having a total laden weight of less than 44,000 kgs and complying in all respects with the requirements of the Construction and Use Regulations.
- "Consignment" shall mean goods in bulk or contained in one parcel, package or container, as the case may be, or any number of separate parcels, packages or containers sent at one time in one load by, or for, the customer from one address to one address.
- "Freight Charges" shall mean the Company's standard charges or such other charges agreed between the Customer and the Company excluding any charges by sea, rail, inland waterways or air.
- "Used Plant or Machinery" shall mean items previously operated or installed and in visibly used condition, i.e., not new ex-manufacturer or
- "Company" means the company detailed at the commencement of these Conditions.

4. Parties and Sub-contracting

The Customer warrants that he is either the owner of the goods in any Consignment or is authorised by such owner to accept these Conditions on such owner's behalf.

- The Company may employ the services of a sub-contractor for the purposes of fulfilling the contract in whole or in part and the name of every such sub-contractor shall be provided to the Customer on request.
- Unless the contract provides to the contrary the Company contracts for itself and as agent of and trustee for its servants and agents and all other sub-contractors referred to in (4.2) above and every reference to "the Company" shall be deemed to include every such other sub-contractor, and its servants and agents with the intention that they shall have the benefit of the contract and collectively and together with the Company be under no greater liability to the Customer or any other party than is the Company hereunder.

Terms for Abnormal Indivisible Loads

Unless the contract provides to the contrary a contract for the carriage of abnormal indivisible loads shall be subject to the following additional conditions.

The Customer shall be responsible for:

- Informing the Company of the correct weight, centre of gravity and the dimensions of the load
- Informing the Company in writing of any limitations in size and weight of vehicles (whether laden or unladen) cranes and plant which can safely negotiate at premises on which collection and/or delivery of the goods is to be made or private property over which the vehicle, cranes or plant have to pass to gain access to the place of collection or delivery.
- In the absence of such information as aforesaid indemnifying the Company against all losses, claims and demands whatsoever which the Company may incur arising out of inadequacy of such premises and property, and the roadways, bridges, weighbridges, underground services, manholes and covers to withstand the weight of the vehicle whether laden or unladen, without prejudice to the generality of the indemnity contained in Condition 9 hereof.
- Informing the Company of alterations in circumstances applicable to a specific contract
- Unless otherwise agreed in writing obtaining the Road/Bridges or other Authority's prior recommendation of a route suitable for the passage of the vehicle(s) and load without subsequent material variations of such routes. All goods are carried subject to a suitable route being available at the time of movement.
- Unless otherwise agreed in writing paying the Company for the cost of removal and replacement of street furniture, road signs, overhead wires, route alterations or any other works and way-leaves necessary to permit the movement of the abnormal load at the cost as submitted by the relevant authority plus 5% for administration.

Dangerous Goods

Dangerous Goods must be disclosed by the Customer and if the Company agrees to accept them for carriage they must be classified, packed, marked, labelled and documented in accordance with the Statutory Regulations for carriage by road of the substance declared.

Loading and Unloading

- Unless otherwise agreed in writing the Customer will be responsible for 7.1. the loading of goods on to the vehicle and the consignee will be responsible for unloading the goods off the vehicle. The Company will not be responsible for any loss or damage to the goods arising from the loading onto or unloading off the vehicle or from the overloading of the vehicle or the unsafe loading of the vehicle. The Company will through its servants or agents provide assistance in loading or unloading the goods when requested to do so by the Customer or the consignee or the agents of either. The Customer agrees to indemnify the Company from and against all and any loss, damage, death or injury that may arise whilst the loading or unloading operation is taking place whether or not such loss, damage, death or injury is attributable to the negligence of the Company, its agents or servants.
- The Customer shall ensure that there is adequate access to the loading and the unloading points and that the roadways to and from the public highway are of suitable material and that unloading will take place on good sound hardstanding.
- The Customer shall ensure that any cranes, fork lift trucks, slings, chains or other loading or unloading equipment is suitable for its purpose and will indemnify the Company against all consequences of failure of such equipment.
- The Company will if required provide suitable timber dunnage to be placed between the goods and the vehicle platforms. Dunnage to part lifts or for the protection of goods in transit must be provided by the Customer.

Used Plant or Machinery

Notwithstanding anything contained in these conditions to the contrary used plant or machinery is transported on the condition that the Company is responsible only for transit risks or damage directly attributable to the negligence of the Company, its servants, agents or sub-contractors.

9. Indemnity to the Company

The Customer shall indemnify the Company against:

- 9.1. All consequences suffered by the Company (including but not limited to claims, demands, fines, proceedings, penalties, damages, costs, expenses and loss of or damage to the carrying vehicle and to other goods carried) due to any error, omission, mis-statement or misrepresentation by the Customer or other owner of the goods or by any servant or agent of either of them, insufficient or improper packing, labelling or addressing of goods or fraud as in Condition 12.
- 9.2. All claims and demands whatsoever by whomsoever made whether or not in respect of negligence in excess of the liability of the Company under these Conditions.
- 9.3. All losses suffered by and claims made against the Company in consequence of loss of or damage to property caused by or arising out of the carriage by the Company of Dangerous Goods whether or not declared by the Customer as such.
- 9.4. All claims made upon the Company by H.M. Revenue & Customs in respect of dutiable goods consigned in bond whether or not transport has ended or been suspended.
- 9.5. Indirect or consequential loss of market arising either from delays en route attributable to statutory notifications or from delays caused by H.M. Revenue and Customs inspections.

10. Company's Liability

The Customer shall be deemed to have elected to accept the terms of these Conditions unless it notifies the Company in writing to the contrary 7 days before transit commences. Subject to these Conditions the Company shall be liable for any loss of or destruction of or damage to or misdelivery of goods occasioned during the performance of the contract.

11. Exclusions

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be liable for any loss of or destruction of or damage to or misdelivery of goods occasioned during transport directly or indirectly caused by or arising from:

- 11.1. Act of God
- 11.2. Any consequence of war, invasion, act of foreign enemy, hostilities (whether war be declared or not) civil war, revolution, rebellion, insurrection, military or usurped power or confiscation, requisition, destruction of or damage to property by or under the order of any government or public or local authority.
- 11.3. Seizure under legal process.
- 11.4. Error, act, omission of the Customer or owner of the goods or of the servant or agents of either.
- 11.5. Faulty design, latent defect or inherent defect, condensation, inherent vice or natural deterioration of the goods.
- 11.6. Insufficient or improper packing.
- 11.7. Riots, civil commotion, lock outs, general or partial stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause, persons taking part in labour disturbances and any terrorists or any person acting from a political motive.
- 11.8. Consignee not taking or accepting delivery to suit the convenience of the Customer or his customers.

12. Fraud

The Company shall not in any circumstances be liable in respect of a Consignment where there has been fraud on the part of the Customer or owner of the goods or the servants or agents of either in respect of that Consignment unless that fraud has been contributed to by the complicity of the Company or of any servant of the Company acting in the course of his employment.

13. Limits of Liability

- 13.1. Except as provided otherwise in these Conditions the liability of the Company in respect of loss of or destruction of or damage to the goods, shall in all circumstances be limited to whichever is the lesser of the following:
 - 13.1.1. The actual value of the goods lost or damaged, or
 - 13.1.2. The cost of making good the damage, or
 - 13.1.3. A sum calculated at the rate of £1,300 Sterling per tonne of the gross weight of the consignment.
 - 13.1.4. Where the loss is in respect of part of a Consignment to the proportion of the sum ascertained in accordance with (13.1.3) of this condition which the actual value of that part of the Consignment bears to the actual value of the whole Consignment.
- 13.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 13.1 and subject to the exclusions of Condition 9.5 any liability of the Company in respect of indirect consequential loss or damage howsoever arising, including loss of market or loss arising from delay howsoever caused shall be limited to the amount of freight charges in respect of the goods or the amount of the Customer's proved loss, whichever is the smaller.
- 13.3. The Company agrees to increase the limits of liability in sub-paragraphs 13.1. and 13.2. above, subject always to the exclusions in Condition 11 or otherwise in these Conditions, to whatever reasonable limit the Customer requires, provided always that:
 - 13.3.1. The Customer gives notice to the Company sufficiently in advance of the date on which the goods are to be transported (minimum 7 days) so that the Company can arrange insurance. Such notice to stipulate full particulars of the increased limits which in no case shall exceed the maximum value inclusive of taxes paid or payable on the goods. Where such notice requires the limits of liability in respect of indirect loss, consequential loss or damage to be increased the notice also to include full particulars of the circumstances requiring the increased limit.

- 13.3.2. If the Company's insurers will not for any reason insure the Company's liabilities to the limits required by the Customer, then the Company's liability shall be limited to whatever increased limit of liability is acceptable, if any is acceptable, to its insurers and the Customer shall have no claim against the Company for any amounts in excess of that figure, or figures.
- 13.3.3. In consideration of the Company accepting these increased liabilities the Customer shall pay to the Company the increased cost of insurance incurred by the Company.

14. Time Limits for Claim

The Company shall not be liable for:

- 14.1. Loss from a parcel, package or container or from an unpacked Consignment or for damage to a Consignment or any part of a Consignment unless they are advised thereof in writing otherwise than upon a consignment note or delivery document within 7 days, and the claim is made in writing within 14 days after the termination of the transport contract.
- 14.2. Loss, misdelivery or non-delivery of the whole of a Consignment or of any separate parcel, package or container forming part of a Consignment unless they are advised of the loss, misdelivery or non-delivery in writing otherwise than upon a delivery note or consignment document within 14 days, and the claim is made in writing within 28 days after the commencement of the transport contract.

Provided that if the Customer proves:

- 14.2.1. It was not reasonably possible for the Customer to advise the Company or make a claim in writing within the time limit applicable and
- 14.2.2. Such advice or claim was given or made within a reasonable time. The Company shall not have the benefit of the exclusion of liability afforded by this Condition.
- 14.3. The Company shall in any event be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the goods unless suit is brought within one year of the delivery date when they should have been delivered.

15. Demurrage Charges

The Company shall not accept any responsibility for demurrage charges however incurred on cranes, railway wagons, road vehicles, ships or sea craft belonging to or under contract to the Customer or otherwise unless previously agreed in writing.

16. General Lien Clause

The Company shall have a general lien on all goods and all documents relating to all goods in their possession for all sums due at any time from the Customer and/or the owner of the goods whether or not such sums relate to the particular goods and/or documents in the Company's possession which are subject to the said lien.

17. Company's Charges

- 17.1. The Company's charges shall be paid by the Customer net cash against invoice or by arrangement. Counter claims by the Customer are not to be made a reason for deferring payment or withholding sums payable to the Company.
- 17.2. The Customer shall be liable for the Company's standard demurrage charges as quoted in respect of the Company's vehicles and equipment unless otherwise determined in advance of the commencement of the contract.
- 17.3. Where specific equipment or vehicles are required to perform a contract for a Customer this will be reserved for that contract. If the Customer cancels or postpones the contract without prior written agreement with the Company the Customer shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Company as a result of the cancellation or postponement.

18. Jurisdiction Clause
